Past performance may not be indicative of future results and the performance. Investing in the stock market involves gains and losses and may not be suitable for all investors. Different types of investments and/or investment strategies involve varying levels of risk, including loss of principal, and there can be no assurance that any specific investment or strategy will be suitable or profitable for a client's or prospective client's portfolio. Accordingly, no client or prospective client should assume that the above portfolios (or any component thereof) serve as the receipt of, or a substitute for personalized advice from Validus, or from any other investment professional. The potential for profit is accompanied by the potential for loss.

The Inflection 5 Model Portfolio investments and investment strategy contained in this document represent the model's investments and are the view of the portfolio managers as of May 31, 2022. They are subject to change without notice. Holdings and allocations are subject to change and do not constitute recommendations by LPL financial or Validus. Information pertaining to Validus' advisory operations, services, and fees is set forth in Validus' current disclosure statement, as same is on file with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, a copy of which is available from Validus upon request.

Validus is a registered investment adviser. Validus, as the firm, functions as a mid-sized advisory firm. Validus primarily manages a number of separately managed accounts (SMAs) across strategies ranging from US-specific strategies to international-only strategies.

Validus offers separate account management, investment management services to institutional clients, including public and private pension plans, endowments and foundations, independent RIA's, and high net worth individuals. Validus also provides model portfolio strategies, in a sub-advisor capacity to certain investment advisory programs, including Unified Managed Account (UMA) programs.
